Manage your locations

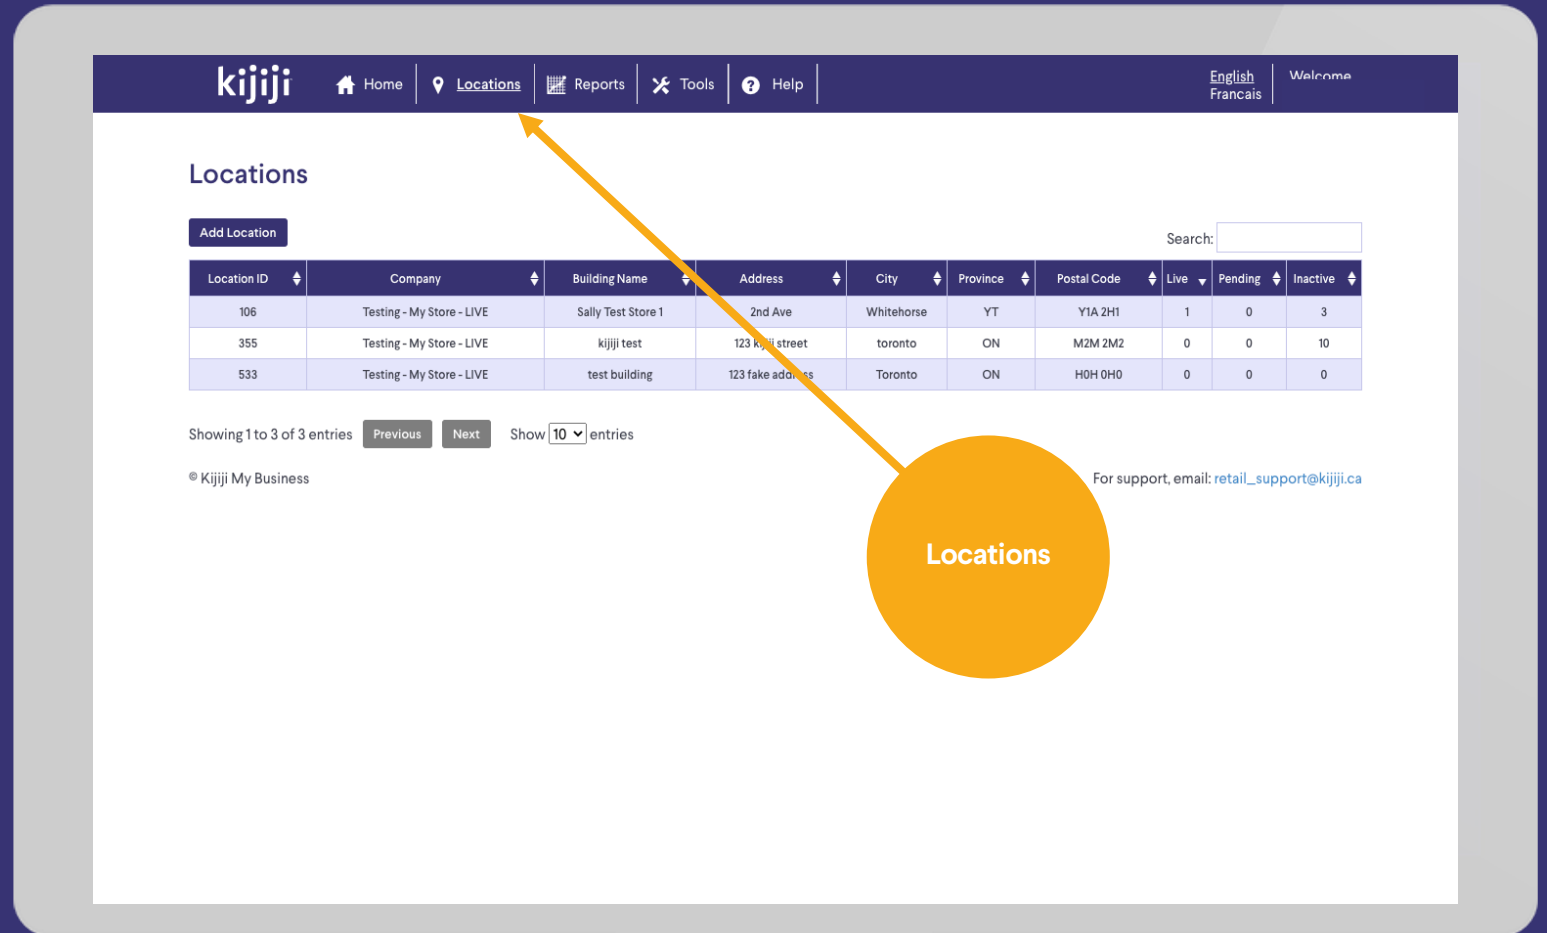

Locations

What is a location?

This is your first step towards creating a new ad if you're just getting started.

Typically a Location(s) represents your store(s), so you create one unique location per store. This structure allows all of your listings to be grouped together, have the same contact information, and located in the same region.

Ask your advertising consultant for advice if you are not sure what's the best structure for your business.

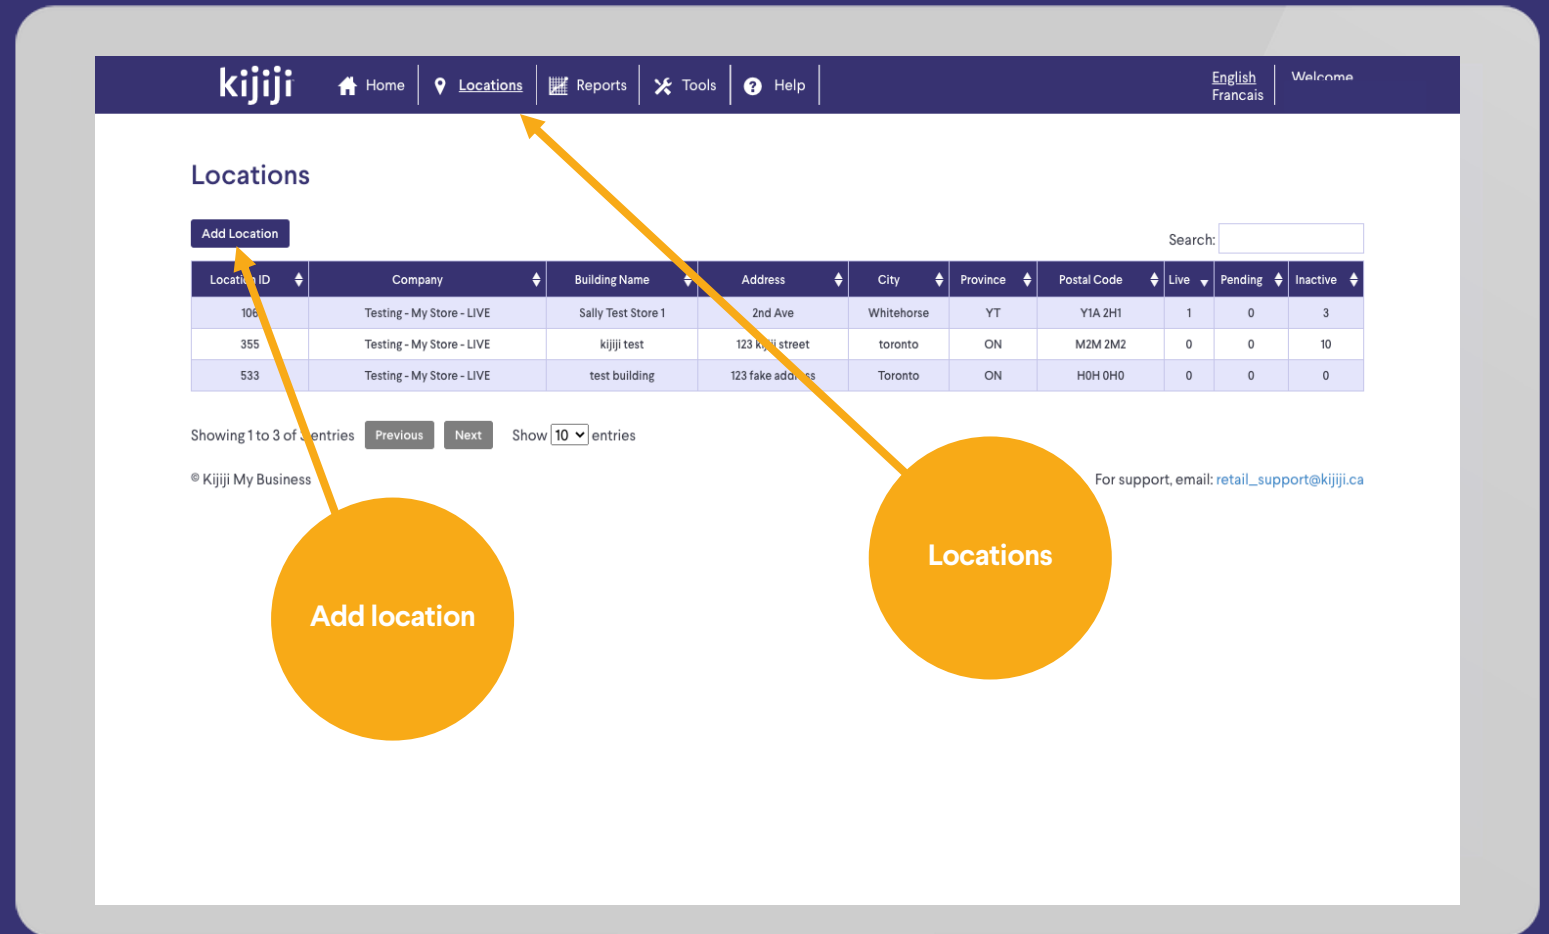

Locations

Create a location

Clicking on the locations tab on the navigation menu will take you to the locations page.

It displays all existing locations, and the number of ads associated with each.

Click on Add Location to create a new store/group for your ads.

Locations

- Address: The physical address of your store
- Phone Number: Will appear in the contact section of your ad
- Website URL: Will appear as "visit website" button in the contact section.

Ask your advertising consultant, or our support team for advice on how we can best accommodate your desired workflow.

Tools

Add Users

To add a new user, fill in all required fields, then click Add to save. Your new user will immediately be sent their welcome email which contains their username and password.

Scheduled Features

We have developed a custom scheduling tool built specifically for busy businesses like yours. This tool allows you to create and manage your bump ups to gain extra visibility at key times during the day when your shoppers are most active. The best part is, you can be promoting your ads on Kijiji to attract new customers while helping the ones already in your store!

Please contact our support team for training, and we'll be happy to add this option to your account!

Tools

Manage Users | Scheduled Features

Scheduled Features

Manager level users using this feature may not have visibility into to all company data, and therefore may configure schedules that require more features than available in the monthly feature package. Should more bump ups be scheduled than available, the schedules will execute bump ups based on date and time scheduled until exhausted. When your company feature package reaches zero, the scheduling system will not trigger any ALC features.

Your "Client" users have admin access to the account and schedules, and are responsible for monitoring your company's overall scheduled feature usage. To increase your feature package, please contact your Kijiji Account Rep.
